

Laodicea

Zealously Repent and Don't Be Lukewarm!

INTRODUCTION

- There is no mi_____ -ground with Jesus. Being lu____w_____ in our relationship with Jesus is not an option. The call this morning is to repent and be ze_____ in our love for Christ Jesus.

THE IMAGE OF JESUS

- Jesus is the A_____
- Jesus made _____ things, possesses _____ things, controls _____ things, and _____ things were made for him. We are here to serve our Lord in _____ things.

WHAT JESUS SEES: THE BAD

- “Lukewarm Christians are those who claim to know God but I_____ as though He _____n’t exist. They may go to church and practice a form of religion, but their inner state is one of self-righteous compl_____. They claim to be Christians, but their hearts are unchanged, and their hypocrisy is sickening to God.”
gotquestions.org
- Wretched: A _____ moral state; worthless, , base, despic_____

REPENT

- Gold refined by fire: all impu_____ are burned away.
- White robes: the righteousness of Christ which covers your shame.
- Eye salve: from spiritual darkness to I_____
- All of the warnings including the call to repentance are done out of _____
- The greater your I_____ for Jesus, the greater your desire to k_____ him, to k_____ his word, to tell others of him, to b_____ up the body of Christ, the church, and to make di_____.

THE PROMISE

- Jesus Christ comes to all – those who are as _____ in their faith, those who have grown c_____ in their love, those have I_____ their way. He comes and seeks _____. He persistently calls to _____.

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

“Lord Jesus, I know that apart from you, I am a wretched sinner. I am sorry for all of the wrong, all of the hurt, all of the sorrow I have caused you and others. I repent of all of my sin. You are my Lord and Savior. Give me your Spirit; give me zeal for you, let me be on fire for you this and every day that in everything you may be preeminent in my life. I trust in you, your word, and your promises. Come, Lord Jesus, come!” endure and remain steadfast in your faith in Christ Jesus?

